Dear Family,

Just to hear from you - I was beginning to think the waters had reached ashore and swallowed you up - and thanks loads for the loan. My trips home are throwing my meager salary all paywise but I can't make any more money and I have to come home every so often so that is the way it goes. We surely did have a wonderful time didn't we. I was having so much fun I hardly had time to give you a bad time. I guess I made it a couple of times but much better I thought.

I would love to have the Camera - a loan - because there are some lovely pictures to be taken here and my polaroid is sick. Anyway it doesn't take color so send Ed's if you can spare it. As far as my romance with Waga goes all I can say is I love her and am having a terrible time staying out here. We are writing but writing seems so useless. I want her out here with me and that is that. So my heart is gone but I struggle on and am doing quite nicely. The first two subject tests were 82's so I guess I can get back in the groove. I wear Civics at school and they have an 8th $2.00 dry cleaning place here so I'm all set. Suits there, shirts at the Navy Exchange, and everything else right here at the Apt. I've learned already not to wash Madras shorts with my white clothes. I should say light blue clothes.

Glad to hear the house is rented. How did Chris do at Camp? I want July back again.

Love, Russ
